

CONSTITUTIONAL BY-LAWS
OF THE
EMPIRE SPORTS CAR ASSOCIATION "ESCA"

Amended 7-7-2020

Note: Chairman is used to indicate either Chairwoman or Chairman. When extraordinary circumstances prohibit in-person meetings, electronically held meetings would be instituted upon quorum decision of the Board. Regular meeting as used in this document is defined as an in-person or electronically held meeting.

Article 1. NAME, PURPOSE, EMBLEM, SEAL

Section 1. Name: The name of this association shall be: "Empire Sports Car Association" also, "ESCA".

Section 2. Purpose: The purpose of the Association shall be: To encourage ownership, operation, and preservation of sports cars, to encourage safe and sportsmanlike conduct on public roads and highways, to arrange and regulate sports car events and exhibitions, and to develop and provide technical information relevant to any of these purposes.

Section 3. Emblem: The emblem of the association shall be as set forth below:

Section 4. Seal: The association seal shall be circular in appearance and inscribed thereon shall be the name of the association, the year of the organization of the association, and the association emblem.

Article II. MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Classes of Membership: There shall be four classes of membership in the association, viz: Regular Associate, Honorary, and Charter.

Section 2. Regular Members: Regular members shall be divided into three categories, as follows:

Active: An active regular member shall have the full privileges and duties of the association. Any member who, without justifiable cause, shall absents himself/herself from four consecutive regular meetings, shall be placed on "Inactive" status and shall be restored to "Active" status only after he/she has attended two consecutive meetings.

Lifetime: Any regular member in good standing who after a unanimous vote of the Board, shall be deemed a Regular Lifetime Member and no longer required to pay dues.

1) After 50 years of continuous membership.

2) Less than 50 years membership must be a member whose contribution(s) to the club has been recognized as: a) critical to the club, or b) provided service on-going consistently for 20 years or more.

Inactive: An inactive regular member shall have full privileges and duties; provided, however, that he/she shall not be entitled to vote or hold office. The Board of Directors may, as herein elsewhere provided, place any member on inactive status. Both active and inactive members shall be responsible for the payment of dues.

Section 3. Associate Members: Associate membership is available to those who are unable to meet the criteria of Regular Membership. Associate members have all rights and privileges of membership except voting and holding elected or appointed offices. Associate members can attend meetings and events. If associate members make two (2) meetings in a row, they may petition the Board to change status to regular member. Associate members can be business establishments.

Section 4. Honorary Members: Honorary membership may be conferred upon one who has rendered distinguished service to the cause of sports cars. Honorary members shall be elected by a three-quarters vote of the members present at any regular business meeting after having first received the unanimous recommendation of the Board of Directors. An Honorary Member shall have all the privileges of regular membership except those of voting and holding office.

CONSTITUTIONAL BY-LAWS
OF THE
EMPIRE SPORTS CAR ASSOCIATION "ESCA"

Amended 7-7-2020

Note: Chairman is used to indicate either Chairwoman or Chairman. When extraordinary circumstances prohibit in-person meetings, electronically held meetings would be instituted upon quorum decision of the Board. Regular meeting as used in this document is defined as an in-person or electronically held meeting.

Article II. MEMBERSHIP (Cont'd)

Section 5. Charter Members: All original members in good standing as of August 3, 1963, the signing date of the original Constitutional By-Laws, shall be known as Charter Members and do not pay annual dues.

Section 6. Admission of Regular Membership: Any person who is a sports car owner or enthusiast shall be eligible for membership in this association. A candidate for membership shall complete and submit an approved application form. The application shall be presented to the Vice-Chairman.

After attending two consecutive meetings, the applicant shall attend a meeting of the Board of Directors where the Board will review the application of the prospective member and ascertain the qualifications and fitness of the prospective member.

Election to membership shall require a majority vote of the Board of Directors present at such meeting. In the event the board rejects the applicant, the application must be voted upon by the members at the next regularly scheduled meeting of the association. The decision of the board can only be reversed by a majority vote of the regular members present at such meeting. No candidate, whose application for membership has been rejected, may submit a new application for a period of six (6) months from the date of such rejection.

When the candidate has been elected to membership, the Board of Directors shall instruct him/her as to his/her obligations and duties to the association. The Vice-Chairman will instruct him/her that the initiation fees and dues, the amount, as appropriate for the rest of the year, will be considered due and payable upon election in-person or electronically to membership.

Section 7. Admission of Associate Membership:

If a person is unable to meet the criteria of regular membership, he/she may petition to join the club as an Associate member. The petitioner may be sponsored by a member in good standing, or, attend one (1) ESCA meeting or event as a guest, and before or within two (2) months of attending, shall submit an application to the Board of Directors either by mail or in person, along with the appropriate fees.

The Board will review the application of the prospective associate member and ascertain the qualifications and fitness of the prospective member.

Election to membership shall require a majority vote of the Board of Directors present at such meeting. In the event the board rejects the applicant, the application must be voted upon by the members at the next regularly scheduled meeting of the association. The decision of the board can only be reversed by a majority vote of the regular members present at such meeting. No candidate, whose application for membership has been rejected, may submit a new application for a period of six (6) months from the date of such rejection.

When the candidate has been elected to membership, the Board of Directors shall instruct him/her as to his/her obligations and duties to the association. The Vice-Chairman will instruct him/her that the initiation fees and dues, the amount, as appropriate for the rest of the year, will be considered due and payable upon election to membership.

Section 8. Suspension for Misconduct or Infraction of Association Rules:

Members: The Board of Directors shall have the power by a unanimous vote to suspend a member for a period of time not to exceed six (6) months or to expel a member. Any member suspended or expelled by the Board of Directors for misconduct may appeal the decision to the members of the association. Said appeal must be presented by the member, or someone on his/her behalf, within thirty (30) days after the vote of the Board of Directors. A majority vote of the members present shall be required to rescind the action of the Board of Directors. Members expelled from this association shall not be eligible to rejoin.

CONSTITUTIONAL BY-LAWS
OF THE
EMPIRE SPORTS CAR ASSOCIATION "ESCA"
Amended 7-7-2020

Note: Chairman is used to indicate either Chairwoman or Chairman. When extraordinary circumstances prohibit in-person meetings, electronically held meetings would be instituted upon quorum decision of the Board. Regular meeting as used in this document is defined as an in-person or electronically held meeting.

Article II. MEMBERSHIP (Cont'd)

Officers: The Board of Directors shall have the power, by a unanimous vote of the remaining members of the Board of Directors, to remove an officer from the Board of Directors. An officer who has been removed by his/her fellow Board of Directors may appeal the decision to the members of the association. Said appeal must be presented by the officer, or someone on the Officer's behalf, within thirty (30) days after the vote of the Board of Directors. A majority vote of the members present shall be required to rescind the action of the Board of Directors.

Section 9. Leave of Absence: Any regular member who expects to be absent for a period in excess of two (2) months but not to exceed six (6) months who wishes to secure suspension of dues during such absence may apply in writing to the Board of Directors stating the period of such absence. The only exception to the foregoing limited period of suspension of dues shall be afforded members of the armed forces who may, if they so desire, be granted an indefinite Leave of Absence while they are on active duty and unable to attend meetings. Failure to obtain a Leave of Absence shall be deemed a waiver of the rights to obtain a suspension of dues and such member shall remain liable for all dues payable during his/her absence. The Board of Directors shall have the right to grant, for proper causes, a Leave of Absence where no application has been made in writing. A member on Leave of absence shall be considered "Inactive" for purposes of voting or holding office.

Section 10. Resignation: A member may resign from the association provided he/she is not indebted to the association. The resignation may be in writing or by the non-payment of dues for one year. In order to rejoin, the initiation fee specified by Article III, Section 1, of these By-Laws must be paid. In case of serious illness or financial inability of the member, the Board of Directors may, in its sole discretion, waive the payment of the initiation fee during such period.

Section 11. Suspension of Associate Membership class of member: These Bylaws provide for the suspension of accepting new associate memberships upon the vote of a majority of the active regular members for a prescribed time.

Section 12. Electronic Communications: Members will indicate agreement, or not, to receive electronic communications by checking the Agreement box on the membership form and providing their e-mail address.

Article III. FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS

Section 1. Initiation Fee: Applicants for membership in this association shall pay an initiation fee of ten dollars.

Section 2. Dues: Any changes in the amount of monthly dues shall require a vote of two-thirds of the active members. The amount to be determined in the manner prescribed in the Policies, Procedures, And Rules; Members & Associate Members: sections # 14 and section # 15; indebtedness of dues shall not exceed sixty (60) days; to continue membership, all dues shall be paid by December 31st of the year in which they are due.

Yearly dues do not apply to Lifetime Members. Lifetime members will receive a yearly membership card. Yearly dues do not apply to Webmaster. The Webmaster will receive a yearly membership card.

Section 3. Suspension for Nonpayment of Dues: After a member is delinquent in his/her dues for a period of sixty (60) days, the treasurer shall give the member written notice of such fact and of the possibility of suspension of membership.

If within thirty (30) days after such notification, the delinquent dues, from January 1st, are not received, the treasurer shall submit to the Board of Directors the name of such member, and he/she shall forthwith be suspended from the association. In case of serious illness or financial inability of the member, the Board of Directors may, in its sole discretion, waive the payment of dues during such period.

Note: Chairman is used to indicate either Chairwoman or Chairman. When extraordinary circumstances prohibit in-person meetings, electronically held meetings would be instituted upon quorum decision of the Board. Regular meeting as used in this document is defined as an in-person or electronically held meeting.

Article III. FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS (Cont'd)

Section 4. Reinstatement: A member suspended from this association for nonpayment of dues may be reinstated by paying such delinquent dues, by December 31st of the year in which they are due, or for up to four (4) years. Any member suspended for delinquent dues may rejoin as a new member

Article IV. MEETINGS

Section 1. Date and Place: Regular meetings of this association shall, at a minimum, be bi-monthly (semi-monthly) with the day and place determined by the Board of Directors. The date, and place of a regular meeting may be changed, or a special meeting may be called by the Board of Directors provided 48-hour notification is given. The Board of Directors shall hold a minimum of one meeting per month with committee heads and the Board shall determine the date, time and place of such meeting. The Chairman shall have the power to call a special meeting of the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Order of Procedure:

1. Call to order
2. Roll call/attendance recording & introductions
3. Reading of minutes
4. Treasurer's report
5. Presentation of bills
6. Membership report
7. Committee reports
8. Unfinished business
9. New business
10. Communications
11. For the good of the association
12. Adjournment

The Chairman shall have the power at any meeting to dispense with any of the foregoing, a majority of members present being favorable thereto; provided, however, the following shall not be omitted: Roll call/attendance recording, reading of minutes, treasurer's report, and membership report.

Section 3. At any regular or special meeting, fifty-one percent (51%) of the active regular members present shall constitute a quorum. At any Board of Directors meeting, including electronically held meetings, three officers shall constitute a quorum.

Section 4. Any regular member, who, without justifiable cause, shall absent himself/herself from four consecutive regular meetings, shall be placed on "inactive" status. A regular member shall be restored to "active" status only upon having attended two consecutive meetings.

Section 5. Fiscal Year: The fiscal year of this association shall be the calendar year.

Section 6. Annual Meeting: An annual meeting shall be held at the end of the fiscal year.

ARTICLE V. NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

Section 1. Eligibility: Persons eligible for an elective office shall be active members and shall have been a regular or charter member for not less than six months. The minimum age for an elective officer is eighteen. No married couple or two persons from the same family may hold check-signing offices at the same time during the year, if the membership exceeds 100 regular members.

Section 2. Time of Elections: Annual elections shall be held at the regular meeting immediately prior to the annual meeting, except when extraordinary circumstances prohibit in-person meetings and meetings are held electronically. The results of the electronic ballot will be reported at the electronically held meeting.

CONSTITUTIONAL BY-LAWS
OF THE
EMPIRE SPORTS CAR ASSOCIATION "ESCA"

Amended 7-7-2020

Note: Chairman is used to indicate either Chairwoman or Chairman. When extraordinary circumstances prohibit in-person meetings, electronically held meetings would be instituted upon quorum decision of the Board. Regular meeting as used in this document is defined as an in-person or electronically held meeting.

ARTICLE V. NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS (Cont'd)

- Section 3a. Nominations: The Chairman shall appoint a Nominating Committee consisting of three (3) active regular members. The Committee shall be appointed at such time as to allow nominations to be placed before the membership at least 10 days prior to elections. When extraordinary circumstances prohibit in-person meetings and meetings are held electronically, the ballot will be developed, by the Secretary, in Google documents or like electronic program, and emailed to eligible members for voting. Eligible Members will have 5 days in which to vote.
- Section 3b. The nominating committee shall obtain permission from all nominees prior to submitting the slate for nomination.
- Section 3c. At the same regular meeting at which the report is made by the nominating committee, the chairman shall entertain any additional nominations from the floor, with the nominees' consent. At the regular meeting the chairman shall call for any additional nominations from floor, before closing nominations.
- Section 4. Balloting: All elections shall be by written ballot or by use of Google Documents or other electronically recorded ballot, when necessary. Where no candidate receives a majority vote on the first ballot, the candidates receiving the smallest number of votes shall be eliminated and the voting continued until one candidate shall receive a majority. Active regular members may not vote by proxy or by absentee ballot, or by any form of electronic communications, except when extraordinary circumstances, as defined by a quorum of the Board, prohibit in-person voting, electronic balloting will be used.
- Section 5. Vacancies of Elective Offices: Any vacancy that may occur in an elective office must be filled by election. Nominations for a vacant office shall be referred to the nominating committee. Nominations for a vacant office must be opened at least thirty (30) days prior to elections. In the interim the chairman may appoint a temporary officer to fill the vacancy.
- Section 6. Installation: Installation of officers for the ensuing year shall be at the annual meeting.

ARTICLE VI. OFFICERS

- Section 1. Board of Directors: The Board of Directors shall consist of the elected offices. The elected officers of this association shall consist of a Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Secretary, Treasurer, and Ex-Officio. They shall be responsible for the administrative affairs of the association. They shall have the general charge of the funds and of all property of the association. They shall have the power to order the payment of all bills or claims against the association, to execute the contracts and to transact all the usual business of the association.

The Board of Directors shall supervise all committees in their work, appropriate money as needed therefore and restrict its expenditure. The Board shall have the responsibility to appoint committee chairmen and shall have the power to remove any committee chairman from his/her post for just cause and after a hearing.

A majority vote of the officers present at any meeting of the Board of Directors shall be required to pass any act or measure, but should the Board fail to reach an agreement on any act or measure, it may be referred to the association at large for final action. Any action taken by the board may be rescinded by a two-thirds vote of the members present.

Any officer who shall absent himself from three consecutive meetings of the Board, without satisfactory excuse or without having previously obtained approval to do so shall be considered to have resigned as a member of the Board and his/her office shall be declared vacant. The vacated office shall be filled by vote only. The Board of Directors shall perform all other duties as set forth in any other Article of these Constitutional By-Laws.

- ❖ the books and records of the treasurer shall be the property of the association and shall be open, upon request, to the Board of Directors.
- ❖ the records of the treasurer may be audited annually, but, at a minimum, must be reconciled annually, or upon termination of office.
- ❖ if required, the treasurer shall be bonded at the expense of the association for such an amount as the Board of Directors may deem necessary.

Paragraph E - "Ex-Officio": The Ex-Officio:

- ❖ shall have been an officer of the Board of Directors within the last four years.
- ❖ shall serve in an advisory capacity on the newly elected board.
- ❖ shall be nominated and elected in the same manner as new officers.

CONSTITUTIONAL BY-LAWS
OF THE
EMPIRE SPORTS CAR ASSOCIATION "ESCA"
Amended 7-7-2020

Note: Chairman is used to indicate either Chairwoman or Chairman. When extraordinary circumstances prohibit in-person meetings, electronically held meetings would be instituted upon quorum decision of the Board. Regular meeting as used in this document is defined as an in-person or electronically held meeting.

ARTICLE VI. OFFICERS (Cont'd)

Section 3. Committees: Committees shall be organized to execute the functions and activities of the association. They shall be created when the formal pursuit of an activity or function is required. A record shall be maintained by the Board of Directors listing committees and their chairmen. There shall be two categories of committees: Permanent Committees, and Special Committees. Permanent committees may be created or dissolved only by a verbal two-thirds vote of the active regular membership. A permanent committee shall continue its existence even in the absence of any members thereof. Special committees shall organize for a specific goal or activity. They may be created at the request of the regular membership or the Board of Directors. They shall be dissolved upon completion of their goal or activity, or by majority decision of the board.

Section 4. Committee Chairmen: Committee chairmen shall be appointed to their position by the Board of Directors. They shall be responsible to the Board of Directors for the functions and progress of the committees. They shall represent their committees at one Board of Directors meeting per month. They shall make recommendations of appropriations of money for carrying out the work of their committee but shall not at any time involve the association in expenditures without the express approval of the Board of Directors. The chairmen of each committee shall be responsible for any funds allotted to their committee. The chairmen shall have the power to call upon or appoint any other committee or association member to assist him/her in the performance of his/her duties. A committee chairman shall insure that his/her committee activities do not conflict or duplicate those activities or functions of other committees.

Any duplication or conflicts, which may arise between committees, shall be referred to the Board of Directors by the committee chairmen involved. Committee chairmen shall be responsible for correspondence of their committees and shall insure that copies of all committee correspondence be given to the association secretary. The committee chairman shall hold his/her position for as long a period as he/she efficiently performs his/her duties. He/she shall be required to surrender his/her position at the end of the calendar year. The committee chairmen shall have the power to call a meeting of their respective committees so long as it would not conflict with other committee or association meetings called prior.

Committee chairmen shall be appointed to their position by the Board of Directors. Each committee chairman shall render a report at one regular meeting each month and at the annual meeting, shall give a resume of the previous year's activities. Any active regular member of the association is eligible to participate as a committee chairman.

Section 5. Recall of Officers: For just cause, an elected officer may be recalled by the regular membership in the following manner: A petition for recall setting forth the reasons therefore and signed by not less than twenty percent (20%) of the regular membership shall be submitted to the Board of Directors who shall call a special meeting to review the circumstances pertaining thereto. Both the petitioners and officer involved shall be notified of such meeting. If no solution is reached, a majority of the remaining members of the Board of Directors have the discretion to remove the officer from the Board. If no solution is reached by the Board of Directors, the petition can be presented to membership vote. At this point, the recall of an elected officer requires two-thirds majority vote of active regular members.

In addition, as set forth in Article II, Section 8, the Board of Directors can remove a fellow officer from the Board.

CONSTITUTIONAL BY-LAWS
OF THE
EMPIRE SPORTS CAR ASSOCIATION "ESCA"

Amended 7-7-2020

Note: Chairman is used to indicate either Chairwoman or Chairman. When extraordinary circumstances prohibit in-person meetings, electronically held meetings would be instituted upon quorum decision of the Board. Regular meeting as used in this document is defined as an in-person or electronically held meeting.

ARTICLE VII. LIABILITIES AND INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Personal Liabilities: All persons or corporations extending credit to, contracting with, or having any claim against the association or the Board of Directors shall look only to the funds and property of the association for payment of any debt, damage, judgment, or decree, of any other money that may otherwise become due and payable to them from the association or the Board of Directors, so that neither the members of the association, nor the Board of Directors, present or future, shall be personally liable thereto, either jointly or severally.

Section 2. Indemnification: The Board of Directors shall indemnify and reimburse from the funds of the association each director, or officer of the association, and his/her heirs, executors of administrators, for any judgment against him/her and for expenses necessarily incurred by him/her in connection with the defense or reasonable settlement of any action, suit, or proceeding to which he/she is made a party by reason of his/her being a director or officer of the association, or by reason of his/her conduct as such, unless such director, or officer is finally judged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable for willful malfeasance or malfeasance in the performance of his/her duties as such a director or officer. The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to and not exclusive of any and all rights of any such director or officer.

ARTICLE VIII. CONSTRUCTION OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL BY-LAWS

Section 1. Interpretations of the Constitutional By-Laws: On all questions as to construction or meaning of the Constitutional By-Laws, the decision of the Board of Directors shall be final, unless such construction be overruled at any regular meeting by a two-thirds vote of the active regular members present.

Section 2. The attached stand-alone POLICIES, PROCEDURES, and RULES are not an integral part of these Constitutional By-Laws and may be changed by a quorum of the Board of Directors.

Section 3. Rules of Order: All meetings of the association shall be guided in parliamentary rules by Robert's Rules of Order.

Section 4. Electronic Communications: All forms of business and membership communications, are acceptable, including electronic, except where prohibited in the Constitution.

ARTICLE IX. AMENDMENTS TO CONSTITUTIONAL BY-LAWS

Section 1. Amendments to the Constitutional By-Laws shall be proposed by petition signed by not less than twenty percent (20%) of the active regular members. The petition shall be submitted to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may also propose amendments to the Constitutional By-Laws when deemed necessary. A two-thirds (2/3) vote of the active regular membership present at a regular meeting is required to enact the proposed changes to the Constitutional By-Laws. Notice of proposed amendments shall be given by mail/email to all regular members at least 10 days in advance of the regular in person or electronic meeting at which time the proposed amendment shall be submitted to a vote. The proposed amendment must be voted upon no later than 45 days after the receipt of the petition.

Section 2. The attached stand-alone POLICIES, PROCEDURES, And RULES may be changed by a quorum of the Board of Directors.

POLICIES, PROCEDURES, AND RULES
OF THE
EMPIRE SPORTS CAR ASSOCIATION "ESCA"

Amended 9-1-2020

Note: Chairman is used to indicate either Chairwoman or Chairman. When extraordinary circumstances prohibit in-person meetings, electronically held meetings would be instituted upon quorum decision of the Board. Regular meeting as used in this document is defined as an in-person or electronically held meeting.

18. A sponsor for a potential associate member must have been a member for a minimum of six months. A member who wishes to sponsor a perspective associate member starts the process by contacting the Board for an Associate Membership Application. It is recommended that the sponsor encourage the perspective associate member to attend at least one meeting prior to the board meeting. A sponsor assumes the responsibility for acting on behalf of the potential associate member, if the perspective associate member is not able to be present at the board meeting. In such a role, it is expected that the sponsor will be able to answer the questions, which the board asks all potential members, including regarding car maintenance, insurance coverage, driving record, as well as questions on how the sponsor knows the potential associate member; and, bringing a completed and signed application and required fees (payable in person or electronically) to the board meeting. It is expected that the sponsor commits to attending the first event, which the new associate member attends and to guide the new associate member in ESCA activities, as needed for one year. The associate member is bound by the current ESCA Constitution, including the disciplinary measures that can be taken by the board. It is expected that the sponsor attend any meetings if the associate member elects to attend a meeting regarding the Boards decisions. A sponsor is highly encouraged to sponsor no more than two potential associate members per year.

Sponsor Checklist Brochure:

1. The ESCA Board recommends that you sponsor no more than two associate members per 12 months.
2. Request an associate member application from the Board.
3. Encourage your potential associate member to attend at least one meeting and the board meeting.
4. Bring or send to the meeting a completed application, which is signed by the potential associate member and the required initiation fee and applicable dues or request electronic payment option.
5. Be prepared to answer questions, if the potential associate member is not in attendance at the board meeting.
